It is an all but universal experience that these attengits, called strikes, do not succeed. Employers in one locality make money by strikes in another and can therefore afford to hire officers of socalled protective unions to order men to quit work -that is, they find it profitable to invest money to got up "strikes" against their rivals in the same line of industry. This Cindintati case affords an illustration.

This Gindurant case arrors an arrow and they intelligent from-workers must know, and they do know, that the manufacturers of that city is presented in the manufacturers of the city is to he and cold water but room cannot maintain themselves if compelled to purpose the control of the control Intelligent fron-workers must know, and they pay twenty-five per cont more to their work men than is paid at Pittsburg. GRANT AND THE MACHINES toou which represents Grant, the politician kicking over the pedestal upon which the American people, in their gratitude and ad. FOR HLWACO AND SKASIDE miration, have placed the laurel-crowned linst as the Philadelphia Impulser justly says, lies ON WEDNESDAY JULY 670. THE SELLAMER EMBEL HAVE A ID. Sellament for its absolute truth; for whatever Grant could in the most of the restrict most of the first state of the property and the restrict most form of the first state of the property and the restrict most form of the first state of the property and the restrict most form of the first state of the property and the restrict most form of the property and the restrict most form of the property and the property do in the way of dishonoring the magnifident record he made as the soldier he is, he has done and is doing as a politician. His ambitions scheme to set saide the traditional law of the land in connection with the limitation of presi-dential terms, in order to become president for a third time, alienated from him the affection and respect of hundreds of thousands of his countrymen; but if he had quietly accepted the large gifts of money subsequently made to him, and henceforth devoted himself to the ordinar; duties of citizenship, that grave offens, against the great unwritten law of the republic would have been forgiven and forgotten by those who want to remember him only as a brave and skillful soldier, who contributed so largely to the overthraw of rebellion. But, while still claiming to be a republican, he has to let ers and published interviews denounced the regulalican prosiders and the lesser official heads of the republican administration, doing what he could to bring them into contempt. He has nothing but denunciation for such eminent re publicans and citizens as President Garfield, ex-President Hayes, Secretary Blaine, ex-Secretary Everts, Mr. Schurz and bondreds of other distinguished leaders, and for Conkling, Loss Shepherd and binself he has only igex-haustible commendations. It is nost unfortunale for his fame that Grant has no julicious friends to counsel him to silence, for when he talks or writes he does not distin guich kinisolt for Justice, or wisdom, or good taste.
